2 高校1年生の Hayato と Yui は、春休みに留学生の Kevin と広島 の 平和記念公園 にやってきました。この会話について、あとの 1 ～ 6 の問いに答えなさい。

Hayato : Look! There are many ORIZURU!

Yui : ① They are called paper cranes in English. In my class, we *folded 1,000 paper cranes and brought them here on August 6th last year.

Kevin : Why did you fold 1,000 paper cranes for August 6th? That is a lot!

Yui : It is SENBAZURU. SENBAZURU is *a string of 1,000 paper cranes. It is a symbol of peace from Hiroshima. *The atomic bomb was dropped on Hiroshima on August 6th, 1945.

Hayato : So, August 6th is 'the day of Hiroshima.' Not only Japanese, but also people from all over the world bring paper cranes here, around 10 *million cranes every year!

Kevin : Wow, that is cool!

Yui : Do you know "The ORIZURU SAISEI Project"?

Hayato : A

Yui : Around 10 tons of paper cranes are sent here each year. Before 2000, they were *thrown away. *What a waste! From 2001, this "ORIZURU SAISEI Project" was started by the Hiroshima *city council. The paper cranes are recycled into *business cards and *letter pads.

Hayato : That is amazing! Let's go and buy some later.

Kevin : By the way, it will be 77 years since Hiroshima got bombed.

Hayato : Yes. How many atomic bomb *survivors are there in Japan now? Do you know?

Yui : I will check it! Look at Graph 1! There are about 140,000 people. In the 1980s, there were more than 350,000 people, so only B of them were *alive in 2020. Also, their *average age is about 85 now.

Kevin : War is so *terrible. We must never forget it, but there are so few survivors. How can we keep their stories alive?

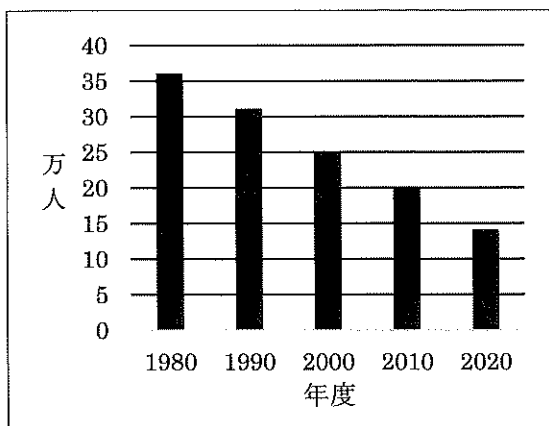

Hayato : There are people called DENSHO-SHA. They talk about the story of the atomic bomb. Many of them *share their parents' stories.

Yui : In Graph 2, C of them are already over 60 in Hiroshima. We need more young people to listen to the story of the atomic bomb. It is very important for peace.

Kevin : I want to do something. ② What can we do?

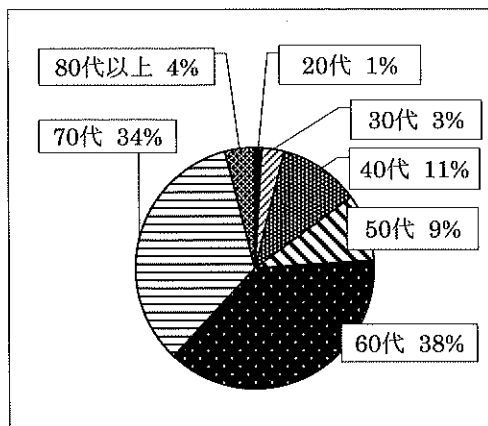

注) fold : 折る	a string of : 1本の糸	the atomic bomb : 原子爆弾
million : 100万	throw away : 捨てる	What a waste! : もったいない!

- 3 次の英文は Mina が授業で行ったスピーチの一部です。このスピーチについて、あとの 1 ～ 6 の問いに答えなさい。

I am Mina. Have you seen this mark? This is a Fairtrade mark. This is Fairtrade jam. My mother bought this at a supermarket. Can you believe this jam will change the world? 【 あ 】

The other day I went to a supermarket with my family. When we walked by the jam, my mother took pineapple jam. There are many kinds of jam for 100 yen to 900 yen. My mother took a 900-yen jam. “Why did you get the expensive one?”, I asked. She said, “This is Fairtrade jam. This jam can change the world.” I didn’t understand my mother’s words at that time. I knew Fairtrade chocolates and coffee, but I didn’t know much about Fairtrade jam. 【 い 】

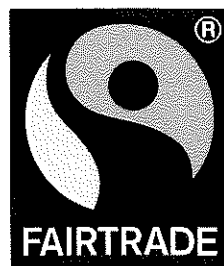

When I got home, I tried learning about Fairtrade jam on the Internet. I learned that it is from *Kenya. People in Kenya don’t get enough if we buy the *normal jam. But if we buy Fairtrade jam, they can get a fair *amount of money.

After that, I asked my mother, “Is buying Fairtrade jam really different? Does buying one *jar really help people in Kenya?” “No, Mina,” said my mother, “Buying one jar of jam may not help. But if more and more people start to buy Fairtrade jam, then it will help many people. Then, that jam will change the world.” 【 う 】

① “Can it change the world by giving them more money?” I asked. “With more money, people in Kenya can go to school, make a better *economy, and a better *society,” answered my mother. 【 え 】

My dream is to be a cook in the future and have my own café. I like cooking very much. I cook breakfast for my family every weekend. My family enjoys my cooking. My cooking always makes them happy. When I see their smiles, I am very happy, too. 【 お 】

When I have my own café, I want to use Fairtrade *products, like the jam, chocolate, and coffee. If more people know about them, they can help more people! By using these Fairtrade products in my cooking, I want to make people happy, and help them, too!

注) Kenya : ケニア	normal : 普通の	amount : 額	jar : 瓶
economy : 経済	society : 社会	product : 製品
